

HEAR

Ex-Congressman
..Tracy..

At Court House
Saturday Night

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Republican speaking at court house Saturday night.

Mrs. Wiley returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives.

Sheriff Wilson spent Tuesday with relatives in Miami.

G. M. Francisco drove to Miami and back on Tuesday.

Sam Jones will lecture at Slater on the 23rd of this month.

Miss Maude Crutcher, of Napton, was up shopping Tuesday.

Wm. Bolton, of Lexington, was a visitor in our city Monday.

Hear Ex-Congressman Tracy at Court House Saturday night.

Miss Etta Chastain is out again after a week's illness with fever.

Mrs. C. W. Piper returned Monday from a visit to relatives at Alma.

O. H. Harris, of St. Louis, was in Marshall Tuesday and Wednesday.

Hear Hon. Jno. P. Tracy, of Springfield, at Court house Saturday night.

Louis Gibbs, of St. Louis, spent Sunday with his family on Yerby St.

C. L. Bell and wife returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives at Miami.

Mr. J. T. Shelton and wife, of Slater, were shopping in the city Monday.

J. C. Thompson, employed at M. K. Farmer's is out again after a short illness.

Hon. W. D. Bush will address the people, at Miami, Saturday, Oct. 20th, at 2 p. m.

Dr. Lee Shuck, of Nelson, attended the meeting of the Medical Society Tuesday.

Miss Anna Cooney, of Carrollton, attended the Kennedy-Campbell wedding Wednesday.

W. L. Decker and wife, George Long and wife, of Fairville, were in shopping Monday.

M. K. Farmer has rented the O'Dwyer building recently damaged by fire, for a branch store.

Mrs. B. M. Spencer is making a visit to her daughter, Mrs. F. H. White, of Salisbury.

Miss Myrtle Isbel and sister, of Marshall, are visiting relatives at Grand Pass this week.

Thomas. Boatright took advantage of the beautiful weather Thursday and went squirrel hunting.

Mrs. W. C. Gower and little son, Lesueur, left Monday for Kansas City, for a visit to relatives.

Mrs. George Brown returned Monday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. R. Smith, near Fairville.

Father Curry of Slater, attended the Kennedy-Campbell wedding in this city Wednesday morning.

Rev. Thomas Barbee left Tuesday for Louisville where he is attending the Theological Seminary.

Judge Cooney left Monday for Boone county where he addressed the people returning on Friday.

Miss Mattie Hoy from Livingston, county, will spend the winter with her brother, A. B. Hoy, of this city.

Mrs. J. B. Gannt, of Jefferson City, spent Sunday with her son Charles who is attending school at M. V. C.

What was it that Dr. D. F. Manning and Prof. William Ferguson saw while out driving on Sunday afternoon?

Mrs. James Sullivan and daughter, Lizzie, and son, Andrew, have returned from a visit to relatives in Illinois.

Miss Chandler, who was taken suddenly very ill on Saturday has sufficiently recovered to be at her place of business.

Mrs. Eva Miller, of Miami, spent Tuesday and part of Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Hebe McDaniel on Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. VanAusdale drove down to Slater and spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fels, of that city.

C. M. Buckner left Wednesday for Paris, Mo., to attend the wedding of his niece Miss Sadie Ragsdale to Roy Noel, which took place Thursday.

W. L. Hancock returned to his home at Excelsior on Monday evening. He attended the funeral of his friend, the late Rev. Joshua Barbee.

Rev. E. E. Morris and Dr. T. W. Galloway left Tuesday for Clinton, Mo., to attend the C. P. Missouri Synod which convened in that place.

Mrs. W. B. Nock came up from Slater Tuesday and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Janie Berryman, returning to Slater the same night.

Mr. Totaso Kobayashi, representing the Matting Manufactory of Tojiro Kobayashi, at Tokio, Japan, was in Marshall Tuesday and sold a big bill of mattings for next season, to the New York Racket Store.

Dr. Wainright, of Kansas City, Dr. Collins, of Glasgow, and Dr. Braecklein, of Higginsville, were in attendance at the District Medical Society Tuesday.

Rev. James Martin and wife left Tuesday for Westport to visit their daughter, Mrs. G. P. Balty. Mr. Martin will also attend Synod at Clinton this week.

Mr. William Rogge and Miss Annie Peters, of Alma, were married at the Lutheran church in Alma on Oct. 17th, Rev. Mr. Rolfing performing the ceremony.

Jahleel Woodbridge has entered the Kansas City Medical and Surgical college and will take a four years course. Dr. C. Lester Hall is president of the college.

Mrs. Virginia Russell, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Hayes, of this city, left Saturday for a three weeks visit to relatives in Bloomfield, Iowa.

J. J. Smith was in St. Louis last week. He attended the fair, taking with him samples of his famous butter all of which took premium prizes.—Sweet Springs Herald.

Dr. B. M. Spotts left Thursday for Armstrong to visit his parents and will make a visit to relatives in Canada and will arrive in New York City about the first of November.

Charles Potter is putting in a granitoid pavement in front of his place on Highland, also from the gate to the house, which will greatly add to the appearance of his home.

Weekly Excursion sleepers leave Kansas City, via the M. K. & T. Ry., Saturday at 9:05, p. m. for San Antonio, Los Angeles and San Francisco. First sleeper leaves Kansas City, Nov. 3rd.

Mrs. Ellen Pinkerton, who is enroute to her home in Florida from New York City, arrived Tuesday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Mary Davis, at the home of Dr. Ed. Sharp on Odell Avenue.

The new local passenger, running between Slater and Kansas City, due in Marshall at 8:27 p. m., was delayed Monday night on account of a wreck, and did not arrive here until 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Eddins McMath, of Kansas City, is taking the place of Mr. Harbaugh in the Bell Telephone office during the latter's illness with typhoid fever. Mr. McMath is stopping with his aunt, Mrs. Robt Reynolds.

A barn belonging to Mr. Murrell on South Redman Ave., containing a large amount of feed was burned on Sunday morning, Oct. 14th. The fire company did good work although im-

Honorable
John P. Tracy

At Court
House

Saturday....
Night.

possible to save the barn.

This week is being observed by the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian church as the week of self-denial and prayer for missions, from 9 to 9:30 p. m., being the hour observed by each.

Go up to O. L. Hutchings' gallery and see the pictures that won the highest prize and gold medal at the Photographers' Association of Missouri, assembled in Kansas City, Sept. 20th. Gallery, North-west corner square. Established 1895. 37 tf

Mrs. B. M. Spotts and children arrived Saturday night from Blackburn and will make Marshall their home in the future. They will remain with Robert Campbell and wife during the absence of Dr. Spotts who will attend lectures in New York City this winter.

Harry H. Parsons, who will speak here next Thursday, is yet on the sunny side of thirty and has the distinguished honor of being the nominee of a great political party for congress. It falls to the lot of but few men to be thus honored.—Humansville Star Leader.

O. L. Hutchings' gallery opened to trade on Oct. 19th, has been completely refurnished. All the photographic paraphernalia and scenic effects are of the latest designs and it is well worth ones time to go up and look around. Gallery N-W corner square. Established 1895. 37tf

Mrs. W. N. Gulager, who has been visiting her parents, It. B. Taylor and wife in this city, was called home Friday on account of the illness of her husband. She left on the belated train Friday and was met at Kansas City by a brother-in-law, who made the remainder of the journey with her to Tallequah, I. T.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Strother and Mr. W. S. Newell, left Thursday morning for Cannon City, where they go on account of the health of Mr. Strother, who has not been very strong of late. The REPUBLICAN joins with many friends, in hoping she may return to Marshall in the Spring time entirely restored to health.

Mr. Arthur Hupp and wife have returned from their visit to Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Cannon City, feeling very much benefited from their stay. They visited Rev. Baldwin Harl and family at Cannon City, and being old friends greatly enjoyed the visit. They say Mr. Harl's health is very good and his church relations are most pleasant.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
GOOD GRADES. LOW PRICES.
LARGE STOCKS. FAIR TREATMENT.